

AFFIRMANCE

Meaning: Affirmance refers to the act of confirming or validating a decision or ruling, particularly in a legal context.

1. The court's affirmance of the lower judge's ruling was a significant victory for the plaintiff.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the jury's affirmance of the defendant's innocence left many in shock.
3. The CEO expressed gratitude for the board's affirmance of the new strategic direction for the company.
4. Her friends showed their affirmance of her decision by supporting her through every step.
5. The professor noted the affirmance of her theories in recent research studies as a validation of her work.
6. His eloquent speech received an affirmance from the audience, who applauded enthusiastically.
7. The affirmance of the treaty by both countries marked a new era of cooperation and peace.
8. During the meeting, the affirmance of new policies was met with mixed reactions from the employees.
9. The affirmance of the project by the funding committee opened doors for innovative developments.
10. Their affirmance of the charity's mission inspired others to contribute generously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affirmance>