

AFFIRMANT

Meaning: AFFIRMANT: A person who makes a formal declaration or statement, often under oath, affirming the truth of their claims or evidence.

1. The affirmant presented compelling evidence to support their claims.
2. In court, the affirmant swore to tell the truth under oath.
3. As an affirmant, she took responsibility for the agreement's terms.
4. The lawyer asked the affirmant to clarify their statements during the deposition.
5. During the hearing, the affirmant's testimony was crucial to the case.
6. The notary public verified the identity of the affirmant before signing the document.
7. The judge relied heavily on the affirmant's credibility during the trial.
8. To proceed, the affirmant must submit additional documentation.
9. The contract required an affirmant for each party involved in the agreement.
10. After careful consideration, the affirmant decided to withdraw their statement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affirmant>