

AFFIRMATIVELY

Meaning: Affirmatively means in a manner that indicates agreement or approval.

1. She nodded affirmatively when asked if she would join the team.
2. The committee responded affirmatively to the proposal, ensuring its swift approval.
3. He answered the question affirmatively, showing his confidence in the decision.
4. The teacher smiled affirmatively, encouraging the students to continue their efforts.
5. After a moment of hesitation, she replied affirmatively, indicating her agreement.
6. The survey results showed that respondents felt affirmatively about the new policy.
7. When the CEO asked if the project was on track, the manager replied affirmatively.
8. The audience reacted affirmatively to the speaker's inspiring message.
9. She raised her hand affirmatively to signal her willingness to take on the task.
10. Even without words, his body language spoke affirmatively to his intentions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affirmatively>