

AFFIRMATORY

Meaning: Affirmatory: serving to confirm or support, often through positive reinforcement or encouragement.

1. The therapist's affirmatory statements helped to boost her client's confidence.
2. In the meeting, his affirmatory remarks were well-received by the team.
3. She gave an affirmatory nod, indicating her agreement with the proposal.
4. The affirmatory tone of his speech inspired the audience to take action.
5. An affirmatory response can significantly influence a child's self-esteem.
6. They issued an affirmatory vote to support the new policy changes.
7. The professor's affirmatory feedback encouraged students to pursue their passions.
8. Through affirmatory expressions, they fostered a positive atmosphere in the workplace.
9. Her affirmatory smile reassured him that everything would be okay.
10. The affirmatory nature of their communication strengthened their relationship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affirmatory>