

AFFLICTING

Meaning: Afflicting refers to causing pain, distress, or suffering to someone or something.

1. The illness was afflicting many in the small town, causing widespread concern.
2. She spoke about the afflicting nature of poverty in her community.
3. His words were afflicting, leaving a lasting impact on everyone who heard them.
4. The documentary highlighted the afflicting effects of climate change on vulnerable populations.
5. They worked tirelessly to address the afflicting issues that plagued their society.
6. Afflicting doubts began to creep into her mind as the deadline approached.
7. The news of the disaster was afflicting, prompting an immediate response from volunteers.
8. An afflicting sadness settled over the room as they remembered their lost friend.
9. The afflicting pain of the past made it difficult for him to move forward.
10. Her afflicting memories haunted her dreams, forcing her to confront her fears.
11. The afflicting pain of loss can linger far longer than expected.
12. She felt a deep sense of guilt afflicting her every decision after that incident.
13. The ongoing drought was afflicting the farmers, leaving them in dire straits.
14. His afflicting memories from childhood often resurfaced during quiet moments.
15. The disease was afflicting many in the region, prompting a rapid response from health officials.
16. They found themselves afflicting harm on the environment without even realizing it.
17. The relentless criticism was afflicting her self-esteem and motivation.
18. Afflicting wounds of betrayal can take years to heal fully.
19. His afflicting thoughts spiraled out of control, leading to anxiety and despair.
20. The afflicting circumstances of her life inspired her to advocate for change.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/afflicting>