

AFFLICTIVELY

Meaning: Afflictively (adverb): in a manner that causes distress or suffering.

1. The disease afflictively impacted the community, leading to widespread concern.
2. Her words afflictively struck a chord, leaving him in deep contemplation.
3. The storm afflictively damaged homes, forcing many families to seek shelter.
4. He spoke afflictively about his struggles, drawing sympathy from his listeners.
5. The relentless pressure from work afflictively wore her down over time.
6. Children often face challenges that can afflictively affect their mental health.
7. The documentary illustrated how war can afflictively alter lives and landscapes.
8. The loss of a loved one can afflictively haunt a person for years.
9. Economic downturns can afflictively disrupt communities and local businesses.
10. Her afflictively harsh criticism left him questioning his abilities.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/afflictively>