

AFFORESTATION

Meaning: Afforestation is the process of planting trees in an area where there was no previous tree cover, aimed at restoring ecosystems and mitigating climate change.

1. Afforestation is crucial for combating climate change and enhancing biodiversity.
2. The government's initiative on afforestation aims to restore degraded lands across the country.
3. Many communities are involved in afforestation projects to improve local air quality.
4. The afforestation of barren lands can lead to significant ecological improvements over time.
5. Experts believe that afforestation can help mitigate the effects of soil erosion and desertification.
6. Afforestation not only provides habitats for wildlife but also contributes to carbon sequestration.
7. The school organized a day of planting trees as part of their afforestation campaign.
8. Sustainable afforestation practices ensure that new forests can thrive without harming existing ecosystems.
9. Investing in afforestation can create jobs and boost local economies through eco-tourism.
10. Researchers are studying the long-term benefits of afforestation on water retention in arid regions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/afforestation>