

AFFRANCHISEMENT

Meaning: Affranchisement refers to the act of granting freedom or liberation, particularly to enslaved individuals or marginalized groups.

1. The affranchisement of the enslaved individuals marked a significant turning point in the nation's history.
2. Many activists dedicated their lives to advocating for the affranchisement of marginalized communities.
3. The legal framework for affranchisement was established during the post-war reconstruction era.
4. Affranchisement not only provided freedom but also access to education and voting rights.
5. The movement for affranchisement gained momentum in the early 19th century.
6. Her research focused on the effects of affranchisement on social dynamics in urban areas.
7. The affranchisement process was often fraught with bureaucratic challenges and resistance.
8. In some regions, affranchisement was a gradual process rather than an instantaneous change.
9. The historical documents reveal the complexities surrounding the affranchisement of various groups.
10. Affranchisement was celebrated in many communities as a long-awaited promise of equality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affranchisement>