

AFFRIGHTEDLY

Meaning: Affrightedly: in a manner that shows fear or terror.

1. She looked affrightedly at the dark figure emerging from the shadows.
2. The child screamed affrightedly as the thunder boomed outside.
3. He affrightedly backed away from the sudden movement in the bushes.
4. Affrightedly, she clutched her friend's arm, unsure of what was happening.
5. The cat jumped affrightedly at the sound of the door slamming shut.
6. They affrightedly exchanged glances when the lights flickered ominously.
7. As the horror movie reached its climax, he affrightedly covered his eyes.
8. The dog barked affrightedly at the unfamiliar sound coming from the attic.
9. Affrightedly, she realized she was alone in the house during the storm.
10. He affrightedly whispered, "Did you hear that?" as the noise grew louder.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affrightedly>