

AFFRIGHTMENT

Meaning: Affrightment is a state of intense fear or fright.

1. The sudden noise in the dark caused a feeling of affrightment to wash over her.
2. His eyes widened in affrightment as the shadow moved across the wall.
3. The children screamed in affrightment when they saw the ghostly figure.
4. She could sense the affrightment in the room as the storm raged outside.
5. The movie was filled with moments of affrightment that left the audience breathless.
6. In moments of affrightment, clarity often eludes even the bravest souls.
7. The unexpected turn of events brought a palpable affrightment to the gathering.
8. He faced his fears, but the initial affrightment was hard to shake off.
9. Despite the affrightment that gripped him, he pressed on into the dark forest.
10. Her heart raced with affrightment as she heard footsteps behind her in the silence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affrightment>