

AFFUSION

Meaning: Affusion refers to the act of pouring a liquid, typically in a ceremonial or religious context, or the gentle pouring of a substance, such as light, over a surface.

1. The affusion of warm sunlight through the trees created a serene atmosphere in the garden.
2. During the ceremony, the priest performed an affusion of holy water over the congregation.
3. The artist captured the affusion of colors in the sunset beautifully on canvas.
4. An affusion of gratitude filled the room as everyone thanked the host for the wonderful evening.
5. The scientist observed the affusion of different liquids in the experiment with great interest.
6. In her speech, she spoke about the affusion of love and support from her friends and family.
7. The affusion of new ideas during the brainstorming session sparked innovative solutions.
8. He felt an affusion of joy when he realized he had passed the exam with flying colors.
9. The affusion of rain over the parched land brought hope for a bountiful harvest.
10. As the music played, an affusion of emotions swept through the audience, moving them to tears.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/affusion>