

AFLAUNT

Meaning: Aflunt means to display or show off in a way that attracts attention or admiration.

1. She wore her new designer dress aflunt, drawing the attention of everyone at the party.
2. The artist's extravagant lifestyle was aflunt, showcasing his success through lavish parties and expensive art.
3. He walked through the city aflunt, proudly displaying his latest sports car.
4. The couple's romantic getaway was aflunt, filled with luxurious dinners and extravagant gifts.
5. In an aflunt display of wealth, the billionaire hosted a gala in his opulent mansion.
6. Her confidence was aflunt as she presented her groundbreaking ideas to the board.
7. The new restaurant opened aflunt, featuring a menu filled with gourmet dishes and exotic beverages.
8. With his flamboyant style, he always appeared aflunt, turning heads wherever he went.
9. The charity event was filled with guests who came aflunt, eager to showcase their generosity and social status.
10. The fashion show was aflunt, with models strutting down the runway in the latest haute couture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aflaunt>