

AFLICKER

Meaning: AFLICKER (verb): to shine unsteadily or intermittently, as a light or flame.

1. The candlelight began to aflicker as the wind seeped through the cracks in the window.
2. In the quiet of the night, the stars seemed to aflicker like distant diamonds in the sky.
3. Her eyes aflickered with hope when she heard the good news.
4. The flames in the fireplace aflicker, casting dancing shadows on the walls.
5. As the storm approached, the streetlights started to aflicker ominously.
6. He noticed the computer screen aflicker before it finally shut down.
7. In the corner of the room, the old lamp would aflicker unexpectedly.
8. The fireflies began to aflicker in the twilight, creating a magical atmosphere.
9. As she spoke, her expression would aflicker between joy and sadness.
10. The neon sign outside the diner would often aflicker, drawing in late-night customers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aflicker>