

AFRICANIZE

Meaning: To Africanize means to adapt or modify something, such as a curriculum or practice, to reflect and incorporate African cultures, histories, and perspectives.

1. To effectively Africanize the curriculum, educators must integrate local histories and cultures.
2. The campaign aimed to Africanize traditional Western practices in modern art forms.
3. Efforts to Africanize the language have led to a richer vocabulary that reflects local dialects.
4. She believes that to truly understand the music, one must Africanize their listening experience.
5. The initiative sought to Africanize corporate governance by incorporating indigenous principles.
6. He argued that in order to Africanize the film industry, local stories must take center stage.
7. The conference focused on how to Africanize scientific research methodologies for better relevance.
8. By Africanizing the recipe, they created a dish that resonated more with the local community.
9. To Africanize fashion, designers began using local fabrics and traditional patterns.
10. The movement to Africanize public spaces has inspired murals depicting African heritage and history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/africanize>