

AGEDLY

Meaning: Agedly: in a manner that reflects the characteristics or qualities associated with old age, often conveying wisdom or nostalgia.

1. She smiled agedly, her eyes reflecting the wisdom of years gone by.
2. The old man walked agedly through the park, reminiscing about his youth.
3. Agedly, she recounted tales of her adventures, each story steeped in history.
4. He spoke agedly, his voice carrying the weight of countless experiences.
5. The painting, agedly rendered, conveyed a sense of nostalgia and sorrow.
6. Agedly, they gathered around the fire, sharing memories under the stars.
7. She moved agedly, each step a reminder of her long journey through life.
8. His laughter, though agedly tempered, still carried a youthful spark.
9. The tree stood agedly in the garden, a testament to time's passage.
10. They listened agedly to the music, each note stirring feelings of the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agedly>