

AGEDNESS

Meaning: Agedness refers to the quality or state of being old or mature, often imparting a sense of history or wisdom.

1. The agedness of the tree added a sense of history to the landscape.
2. Her agedness was evident not just in her wrinkles but in her wise demeanor.
3. The agedness of the manuscript suggested it held many untold stories.
4. Despite his agedness, he maintained an impressive level of vitality and enthusiasm.
5. They admired the agedness of the wine, which contributed to its rich flavor profile.
6. The agedness of the building evoked nostalgia among the townspeople.
7. In her art, she explored the theme of agedness and its relation to beauty.
8. The agedness of the photograph revealed the passage of time in the family.
9. There is a certain charm in the agedness of vintage furniture that modern pieces lack.
10. As we discussed her childhood, the agedness of her memories became apparent.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agedness>