

AGENT

Meaning: Agent: A person who acts on behalf of another, typically in a professional capacity, such as gathering information or negotiating agreements.

1. The secret agent skillfully gathered intelligence without arousing suspicion.
2. She hired an agent to negotiate the terms of her book deal with the publisher.
3. The travel agent recommended several beautiful destinations for our vacation.
4. He acted as a real estate agent, helping families find their dream homes.
5. The talent agent promoted the young actress to major film studios.
6. As an insurance agent, she provided clients with tailored coverage options.
7. The FBI agent worked tirelessly to crack the case and apprehend the suspects.
8. During the meeting, the agent presented a compelling case for the proposed deal.
9. The sports agent secured a lucrative contract for the star player.
10. In chemistry, a catalyst is often referred to as an agent that speeds up reactions.
11. The secret agent slipped through the shadows, gathering intelligence.
12. She hired a real estate agent to help her find the perfect home.
13. The travel agent recommended several exciting destinations for our vacation.
14. He acted as an agent for the artist, promoting her work in galleries.
15. The insurance agent explained the benefits of the policy in detail.
16. A good sports agent can significantly increase an athlete's earning potential.
17. The environmental agent tested the water samples for pollutants.
18. Her role as an agent of change inspired many in the community.
19. The literary agent was thrilled to sign the promising new author.
20. As a talent agent, he negotiated contracts for various actors and musicians.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agent>