

AGGRAVATION

Meaning: Aggravation refers to a state of annoyance or frustration caused by persistent irritation or trouble.

1. The constant noise from the construction site was a source of aggravation for the entire neighborhood.
2. His repeated questions about the project caused significant aggravation among the team members.
3. She tried to remain calm, but the aggravation of the situation was becoming overwhelming.
4. The delay in their flight led to further aggravation for the already stressed passengers.
5. Finding a parking spot in the crowded area was an aggravation that everyone faced.
6. He expressed his aggravation with the service at the restaurant during their dinner.
7. The aggravation of the ongoing traffic jam made her late for the important meeting.
8. Their lack of communication resulted in aggravation that could have been easily avoided.
9. She vented her aggravation to her friend over coffee, needing to release her frustration.
10. Despite his aggravation, he managed to maintain a polite demeanor throughout the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggravation>