

AGGRAVATIVE

Meaning: Aggravative: causing or contributing to an increase in severity, intensity, or hostility of a situation or conflict.

1. The aggravative nature of the situation made it difficult to resolve the conflict.
2. His aggravative comments only fueled the tension in the room.
3. She found the constant interruptions to be quite aggravative during her presentation.
4. The aggravative effects of the noise pollution were felt by everyone in the neighborhood.
5. Each aggravative remark he made pushed her further away from wanting to engage.
6. The aggravative behavior of the children frustrated the teacher immensely.
7. They decided to address the aggravative issue before it escalated any further.
8. Her aggravative tone did not help in convincing anyone of her point.
9. The aggravative symptoms of the illness required immediate attention from a doctor.
10. He avoided conversations with people known for their aggravative tendencies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggravative>