

AGGREGATELY

Meaning: AGGREGATELY means in a combined or total manner, considering all parts or elements together.

1. The team performed aggregately better than expected during the tournament.
2. When analyzing the data, we must consider the results aggregately for a comprehensive view.
3. The expenses were calculated aggregately to provide a clearer financial picture.
4. Aggregately, the various factors contributed to a significant increase in productivity.
5. The survey results were aggregated aggregately to ensure accuracy in interpretation.
6. Students aggregately showed improvement in their test scores compared to last year.
7. The project's success was measured aggregately across all departments involved.
8. The population growth was evaluated aggregately to inform urban planning decisions.
9. Aggregately, their efforts led to a remarkable turnaround for the struggling company.
10. The findings from the research were presented aggregately to highlight overall trends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggregately>