

AGGRESS

Meaning: To take assertive or offensive action in order to achieve a goal or gain an advantage.

1. The team decided to aggress their marketing strategy to capture a larger audience.
 2. In order to win the match, the coach instructed the players to aggress their opponents aggressively.
 3. It is important to aggress the situation before making any decisions that could have lasting consequences.
 4. She chose to aggress her studies with renewed determination after receiving her exam results.
 5. The company plans to aggress its research efforts to stay ahead in the competitive landscape.
 6. They must aggress their training regimen if they want to achieve their fitness goals.
 7. To succeed in negotiations, one must sometimes aggress the other party's expectations.
 8. Politicians often aggress public sentiment to gain support for their policies.
 9. He felt it was necessary to aggress his feelings and express them honestly.
 10. The organization decided to aggress their outreach programs to better serve the community.
 11. He tends to aggress when he feels cornered in a debate.
 12. The dog may aggress if it senses a threat to its owner.
 13. In her frustration, she began to aggress against the unfair rules.
 14. It's crucial to address the issues before they cause individuals to aggress.
 15. The team worked hard to understand why some members might aggress under stress.
 16. Their tendency to aggress in competitive situations often led to conflicts.
 17. He was advised to find healthier outlets rather than aggress at his peers.
 18. When provoked, some animals will aggress to defend their territory.
 19. Understanding the triggers that make someone aggress can lead to better conflict resolution.
 20. The study aimed to explore the psychological factors that lead individuals to aggress.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggress>