AGGRESSING

Meaning: Aggressing refers to the act of moving forward or advancing with forceful intent, often in pursuit of a goal or in a confrontational manner.

1. The team was aggressing toward the championship title with unprecedented determination.
2. He felt that his colleague was aggressing against him during the meeting with constant interruptions.
3. In nature, predators often employ various strategies when aggressing their prey.
4. The company's approach to marketing was aggressing on social media platforms to reach younger audiences.
5. She was surprised to see her normally calm friend aggressing in the heated discussion.
6. The wild animal was aggressing its territory, warning others to stay away.
7. They began aggressing their competitors through innovative advertising techniques.
8. His aggressing behavior during the game cost his team several penalties.
9. The activists were aggressing against the proposed legislation, rallying support from the community.
10. Despite his gentler nature, he found himself aggressing when his values were challenged.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggressing