

AGGRESSION

Meaning: Aggression is a forceful or hostile behavior often driven by underlying emotions such as insecurity or fear, and can manifest in both interpersonal interactions and competitive environments.

1. Aggression can often stem from feelings of insecurity and fear.
2. The athlete's aggression on the field was both impressive and intimidating.
3. In psychology, aggression is defined as any behavior intended to harm another individual.
4. Years of unresolved conflict can lead to increased aggression in communities.
5. She channeled her aggression into her training, pushing herself to new limits.
6. Aggression in animals can be a natural response to threats or competition for resources.
7. The documentary explored the roots of human aggression and its impact on society.
8. His aggressive tone during the meeting raised concerns among his colleagues.
9. Aggression is sometimes misinterpreted as confidence in competitive situations.
10. Effective communication can help diffuse aggression before it escalates into violence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aggression>