

AGITABLE

Meaning: Agitable: easily provoked to agitation or strong emotional response.

1. The child was easily agitable, reacting strongly to the slightest change in his environment.
2. Her agitable nature made it difficult for her to remain calm during stressful situations.
3. Even the smallest noise seemed to render him agitable, disrupting his concentration.
4. In a crisis, his agitable disposition often led to hasty decisions that he later regretted.
5. The team's agitable members struggled to maintain focus during the long meeting.
6. She realized that her agitable tendencies were affecting her relationships with friends.
7. His agitable personality was evident when he paced back and forth, unable to sit still.
8. At times, the agitable dog barked incessantly at anything that moved outside.
9. While she generally had a calm demeanor, certain topics made her surprisingly agitable.
10. Recognizing his agitable state, she tried to soothe him with gentle words and a reassuring touch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agitable>