

AGRICULTURALIST

Meaning: An agriculturalist is a person who specializes in the science and practice of farming, focusing on crop production and sustainable agricultural methods.

1. The agriculturalist advocated for sustainable farming practices to protect the environment.
2. As an agriculturalist, she dedicated her life to improving crop yields through innovative techniques.
3. The conference featured prominent agriculturalists discussing the future of food security.
4. His research as an agriculturalist focused on developing drought-resistant plant varieties.
5. Many agriculturalists believe that technology can revolutionize the way we grow food.
6. The agriculturalist traveled to various countries to study diverse farming methodologies.
7. Her role as an agriculturalist involved educating local farmers about organic farming.
8. An agriculturalist often collaborates with scientists to address pressing agricultural challenges.
9. The agriculturalist received an award for her contributions to sustainable land management.
10. To become an effective agriculturalist, one must understand both science and business practices.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agriculturalist>