

AGRIN

Meaning: Agrin (adjective): smiling broadly or beaming with joy.

1. The farmer was agrin as he watched his crops flourish in the warm sunlight.
2. After receiving the good news, she wore an agrin expression that lit up the room.
3. The children ran out to play, their faces agrin with joy and laughter.
4. He felt agrin at the thought of finally achieving his long-awaited dream.
5. Her agrin smile made everyone around her feel instantly happier.
6. They stood agrin together, taking in the beauty of the stunning sunset.
7. The team celebrated their victory with agrin faces and cheers of joy.
8. Seeing the puppy playfully frolic in the grass left her agrin and carefree.
9. He greeted her with an agrin wave, eager to share his exciting news.
10. The couple exchanged agrin glances, knowing they were ready for the next adventure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agrin>