

AGRIOLOGIST

Meaning: An agrilogist is a professional who studies the effects of agricultural practices on the environment and works to promote sustainable farming methods.

1. An agrilogist studies the impact of agricultural practices on the environment.
2. Many agrilogists work to develop sustainable farming methods that minimize ecological damage.
3. The agrilogist presented her research on soil health at the national conference.
4. He consulted with an agrilogist to improve the crop yield on his farm.
5. Agrilogists often collaborate with farmers to implement innovative techniques.
6. The role of the agrilogist is becoming increasingly important in the face of climate change.
7. She decided to pursue a career as an agrilogist after her passion for environmental science grew.
8. An agrilogist's expertise can help mitigate the effects of pesticide use on local ecosystems.
9. The agrilogist analyzed data from numerous field studies to draw meaningful conclusions.
10. Local governments sometimes hire agrilogists to advise on agricultural policy and land use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agriologist>