

AGRONOMIST

Meaning: An agronomist is a professional who specializes in the science and technology of growing crops and managing soil and agricultural practices.

1. The agronomist conducted extensive research on sustainable farming practices.
2. After years of study, the agronomist developed a new strain of wheat that is drought-resistant.
3. Farmers often rely on an agronomist's expertise to improve their crop yields.
4. The agronomist presented her findings at the annual agricultural conference last week.
5. With the help of an agronomist, the local community implemented a successful crop rotation strategy.
6. His role as an agronomist allows him to influence food production on a global scale.
7. The agronomist collaborated with local farmers to address soil fertility issues.
8. Through careful analysis, the agronomist was able to recommend optimal planting times.
9. An agronomist's work is vital for achieving food security in developing countries.
10. She decided to become an agronomist to make a positive impact on the environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agronomist>