

AGROUPMENT

Meaning: Agroupment refers to the act or state of gathering or assembling a diverse collection of people or elements for a specific purpose or event.

1. The agroupment of various cultures at the festival created a vibrant atmosphere.
2. In the conference, the agroupment of professionals led to fruitful discussions and networking opportunities.
3. The agroupment of witnesses provided valuable insights into the event.
4. Researchers studied the agroupment of species in the ecosystem to understand biodiversity.
5. The agroupment of different departments was essential for the success of the project.
6. An agroupment of historical documents revealed new information about the city's past.
7. The agroupment of ideas during the brainstorming session sparked innovative solutions.
8. Their agroupment in the charity event demonstrated a strong sense of community.
9. The agroupment of students in study groups enhanced their learning experience.
10. The agroupment of resources allowed the organization to tackle challenges more effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/agroupment>