

AHEAP

Meaning: AHEAP (adverb): in a disordered or piled-up manner.

1. The old books were stacked aheap on the dusty shelf.
2. After the party, there were empty bottles piled aheap in the corner.
3. The leaves had fallen aheap on the ground, creating a colorful carpet.
4. He left his clothes aheap on the floor, making the room look messy.
5. The toys were scattered aheap after the children finished playing.
6. In the abandoned house, furniture lay aheap, forgotten and neglected.
7. The papers were thrown aheap on the desk, waiting to be organized.
8. She found her forgotten treasures aheap in the attic.
9. The snow had drifted aheap against the wall, creating a picturesque scene.
10. Their memories were aheap in her mind, each one vivid and cherished.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ahelp>