

AHEM

Meaning: Ahem: an expression used to attract attention or indicate hesitation, often by clearing the throat.

1. Ahem, could we have a moment of silence for our friend?
2. He cleared his throat and said, "Ahem, I think we need to discuss this issue."
3. Ahem, if I may interrupt, I have an important point to add.
4. She raised an eyebrow and said, "Ahem, I think you're forgetting something."
5. Ahem, I believe you owe me an explanation for your actions.
6. He leaned forward and coughed softly, ahem, to get everyone's attention.
7. Ahem, I don't mean to be rude, but that comment was out of line.
8. As she entered the room, she softly cleared her throat, ahem, signaling her presence.
9. Ahem, I must remind you that the deadline is approaching quickly.
10. With a slight cough, he said, "Ahem, can we please stay on topic?"

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ahem>