

AHOLD

Meaning: Ahold (verb) - to obtain or gain possession of something.

1. She finally got ahold of the elusive book she had been searching for.
2. After hours of searching, he managed to get ahold of the lost keys.
3. It's important to get ahold of your emotions during stressful situations.
4. I can't believe she was able to get ahold of that rare vintage vinyl.
5. Once you get ahold of the concept, everything will start to make sense.
6. He struggled to get ahold of the rope as the wind picked up.
7. The detective needed to get ahold of more evidence to solve the case.
8. Once we get ahold of the final numbers, we can make a decision.
9. She finally got ahold of her dreams and decided to pursue them wholeheartedly.
10. It took a while, but he finally got ahold of the right contacts in the industry.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ahold>