

AHOY

Meaning: AHOY: an exclamation used to greet someone or attract attention, especially in a nautical context.

1. AHOY, matey! Prepare to set sail!
2. With a hearty AHOY, the captain welcomed the crew aboard the ship.
3. As the pirate ship approached, the crew shouted AHOY to signal their arrival.
4. "AHOY there! Do you have any treasure to share?" he called out.
5. The sailor waved his hand and called out AHOY to the passing vessel.
6. AHOY! Join us for a night of adventure on the high seas!
7. In the distance, a voice rang out, "AHOY! Is anyone home?"
8. The children played pirates and shouted AHOY as they ran around the yard.
9. "AHOY, landlubber!" the pirate bellowed, grinning from ear to ear.
10. At the sound of AHOY, the sailors knew it was time to hoist the sails.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ahoy>