

AIR-TIGHT

Meaning: Air-tight: (adjective) designed to prevent the passage of air, thereby maintaining freshness or protecting contents.

1. The container was designed to be air-tight, ensuring the food stayed fresh for weeks.
2. She sealed the envelope with an air-tight closure to protect the contents.
3. In order to maintain the vacuum, the lid must be completely air-tight.
4. The air-tight seal on the jar kept the spices from losing their flavor.
5. For the experiment to be successful, all equipment had to be air-tight.
6. They invested in air-tight storage bags to preserve their seasonal clothing.
7. His explanation was so convincing that it left no air-tight arguments against it.
8. The engineer assured the client that the new windows would be completely air-tight.
9. Her air-tight schedule left little room for spontaneity or relaxation.
10. The air-tight regulations on emissions have pushed many companies to innovate.
11. The newly designed container is completely air-tight, ensuring the freshness of the food inside.
12. To prevent any leaks, the engineers ensured that the seal was air-tight before conducting the pressure test.
13. The air-tight packaging kept the spices flavorful for months without any loss of aroma.
14. Her air-tight alibi made it nearly impossible for the detectives to find any flaws in her story.
15. We need an air-tight plan to ensure that the project stays on schedule and within budget.
16. The air-tight laboratory maintained a controlled environment for the sensitive experiments being conducted.
17. He believed that his argument was air-tight, but the opposing team found several weaknesses.
18. The air-tight seal on the vacuum bag kept my clothes dry during the trip.
19. For the experiment to succeed, it was crucial to maintain an air-tight environment throughout the process.
20. The air-tight nature of the agreement left no room for misinterpretation between the parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/air-tight>