

AKNOW

Meaning: To acknowledge means to recognize the existence, validity, or truth of something or someone.

1. The artist wanted to acknowledge the support he received from his fans.
2. It's important to acknowledge your mistakes in order to learn from them.
3. She took a moment to acknowledge the hard work of her team.
4. They decided to acknowledge their achievements at the annual meeting.
5. To foster better communication, we must acknowledge each other's perspectives.
6. He failed to acknowledge the contributions of those who helped him succeed.
7. The award ceremony was a great opportunity to acknowledge community volunteers.
8. During the debate, she made sure to acknowledge her opponent's valid points.
9. It is vital to acknowledge the cultural significance of the traditions we share.
10. The teacher made it a practice to acknowledge students' efforts in class.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/aknow>