

ALABASTER

Meaning: Alabaster is a fine-grained, translucent mineral or rock used for carving and decorative purposes, often characterized by its smooth texture and light-reflecting qualities.

1. The statue was carved from smooth alabaster, its surface reflecting the light beautifully.
2. Her skin had the delicate hue of alabaster, flawless and luminous under the candlelight.
3. The artist chose alabaster for its softness, allowing intricate details to emerge in his sculpture.
4. He admired the alabaster columns that lined the entrance of the grand mansion.
5. As she walked through the art gallery, a striking alabaster vase caught her eye.
6. The ancient temple was adorned with alabaster reliefs that depicted scenes from mythology.
7. In the dimly lit room, the alabaster lamp cast a warm, inviting glow.
8. The jewelry box was made of finely polished alabaster, its lid intricately carved.
9. In his poetry, he often used alabaster as a metaphor for purity and beauty.
10. The museum showcased a collection of alabaster artifacts from various ancient cultures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alabaster>