

ALABASTRINE

Meaning: Alabastrine refers to a smooth, pale, and translucent quality resembling alabaster, often used to describe a soft, luminous appearance in objects or skin.

1. The alabastrine statue glimmered softly in the candlelight.
2. Her alabastrine skin seemed to radiate an ethereal glow.
3. The artist chose an alabastrine material to capture the delicate features of the figure.
4. As the sun set, the alabastrine cliffs turned a warm shade of pink.
5. The alabastrine vase sat elegantly on the mantelpiece, a testament to fine craftsmanship.
6. He admired the alabastrine beauty of the ancient ruins scattered across the landscape.
7. The alabastrine walls of the temple reflected the light with a serene luminosity.
8. She wore an alabastrine gown that flowed gracefully as she moved.
9. The alabastrine finish on the sculpture highlighted its intricate details perfectly.
10. In the dim light, the alabastrine surface appeared almost otherworldly.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alabastrine>