

ALACK

Meaning: Alack: an exclamation expressing regret or sorrow.

1. Alack, I fear we have lost our way in this dense fog.
2. Alack, the once vibrant garden now lies in disarray.
3. Alack, he realized too late the folly of his choices.
4. Alack, the opportunity slipped through my fingers like sand.
5. Alack, the news of her departure was a blow I hadn't anticipated.
6. Alack, I could do nothing but watch as the storm approached.
7. Alack, the time for apologies has long since passed.
8. Alack, the shadows of the past haunt me still.
9. Alack, I must face the consequences of my inaction.
10. Alack, the beauty of the moment was tainted by regret.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alack>