

ALACKADAY

Meaning: "Alackaday" is an exclamation used to express sorrow or regret about an unfortunate situation.

1. Alackaday, I forgot my umbrella on such a rainy day.
2. Alackaday, the concert tickets sold out before I could buy any.
3. Alackaday, the final exam was more difficult than I had anticipated.
4. Alackaday, my favorite café has closed down for good.
5. Alackaday, the dog ran away just as I was about to take him for a walk.
6. Alackaday, I spilled coffee all over my new shirt before the meeting.
7. Alackaday, the unexpected snowstorm cancelled our travel plans.
8. Alackaday, I misplaced my keys again and can't find them anywhere.
9. Alackaday, the vintage book I wanted was already taken by someone else.
10. Alackaday, I missed the deadline for the scholarship application.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alackaday>