

ALACRITY

Meaning: Alacrity: cheerful readiness or eagerness to respond or act.

1. She accepted the invitation with alacrity, eager to meet new people.
2. The students completed their assignments with remarkable alacrity, impressing their teacher.
3. His alacrity in volunteering for the project demonstrated his commitment to the team.
4. Despite the rain, they finished the marathon with alacrity, fueled by their determination.
5. The dog wagged its tail with alacrity as its owner approached with a treat.
6. She approached the challenging task with alacrity, ready to prove her skills.
7. His alacrity in responding to the emergency call saved valuable time.
8. The team celebrated their victory with alacrity, reveling in their hard work.
9. She listened to the instructions with alacrity, eager to get started on the task.
10. The children ran outside with alacrity when they heard the ice cream truck.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alacrity>