

ALAR

Meaning: ALAR (adjective): causing alarm or fear; alarming.

1. The alarm began to blare loudly, waking everyone in the house.
2. She felt an alarming sense of dread as the storm approached.
3. His sudden departure was an alarm for the rest of the team to step up.
4. The doctor's report was alarming, indicating more tests were needed.
5. The fire alarm went off just as they were about to sit down for dinner.
6. Her alarming discovery about the company's finances shook the executives.
7. He tried to alarm her with his exaggerated tales of the haunted house.
8. The teacher's stern voice served as an alarm for the disruptive students.
9. An alarmed expression crossed her face when she saw the missing report.
10. The loud horn was an alarm that signaled the start of the race.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alar>