

ALBINISM

Meaning: Albinism is a genetic condition marked by the absence of melanin, resulting in little to no pigmentation in the skin, hair, and eyes.

1. Albinism is a genetic condition characterized by a lack of pigmentation in the skin, hair, and eyes.
2. People with albinism often face challenges related to eyesight due to the absence of melanin.
3. Awareness campaigns aim to educate the public about the realities of living with albinism.
4. In some cultures, individuals with albinism may experience discrimination or stigma.
5. Protecting the skin from harmful UV rays is crucial for those with albinism.
6. Albinism can occur in various species, not just humans, including animals like rabbits and birds.
7. Medical research continues to explore the genetic basis of albinism to better understand its variations.
8. Children with albinism may require special lenses to help improve their vision.
9. The condition of albinism highlights the diversity of human genetics and physical traits.
10. Support groups for individuals with albinism can provide a sense of community and understanding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/albinism>