

ALBINOISM

Meaning: Albinism is a condition characterized by a lack of pigmentation in the skin, hair, and eyes, often resulting from genetic mutations or environmental influences.

1. Albinism can have both genetic and environmental factors affecting its manifestation.
2. Many animals exhibit albinism, which often makes them more vulnerable in the wild.
3. Albinism in humans is characterized by a lack of melanin, leading to pale skin and hair.
4. Individuals with albinism may face social stigma due to their unique appearance.
5. The study of albinism reveals important insights into genetic variation and adaptation.
6. Albinism can lead to vision problems, necessitating special care for affected individuals.
7. Awareness of albinism is crucial in promoting acceptance and understanding in society.
8. Certain cultures have historically viewed albinism with fascination and superstition.
9. The survival of species with albinism can be impacted by their conspicuous coloration.
10. Research into albinism continues to advance our understanding of pigmentation disorders.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/albinism>