

ALBUMINIFEROUS

Meaning: Albuminiferous: containing or producing albumin, a type of protein found in blood and other bodily fluids.

1. The albuminiferous nature of the fluid suggested a possible underlying health issue.
2. Researchers discovered an albuminiferous layer within the sediment, indicating an ancient wetland environment.
3. In the laboratory, they isolated albuminiferous proteins to study their role in cellular functions.
4. The doctor explained that the presence of albuminiferous substances in the urine could signal kidney problems.
5. Her analysis focused on albuminiferous materials that could enhance the nutritional value of the feed.
6. The albuminiferous characteristics of the tissue sample provided insights into its developmental stage.
7. They collected samples from albuminiferous regions to investigate their ecological significance.
8. The study highlighted the importance of albuminiferous compounds in various biochemical processes.
9. In certain animals, albuminiferous glands play a crucial role in the immune response.
10. The findings revealed that albuminiferous compounds are vital for maintaining proper hydration in cells.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/albuminiferous>