

ALGIDNESS

Meaning: Algidness refers to the quality of being cold or chilly, particularly in a refreshing or invigorating manner.

1. The algidness of the mountain air was refreshing after the heat of the valley.
2. She shivered at the algidness that enveloped her as she stepped outside in winter.
3. His thoughts turned to the algidness of the ocean as he stood on the icy shore.
4. The algidness of the room was accentuated by the bare walls and cold floors.
5. We were unprepared for the algidness that greeted us in the early morning hours.
6. The algidness in the atmosphere hinted at an approaching storm.
7. Wrapped in a blanket, she still felt the algidness creeping through the windows.
8. The algidness of the water made swimming a brisk, invigorating experience.
9. He couldn't shake off the algidness that settled in his bones on that frigid night.
10. Despite the algidness outside, the warmth of the fireplace made their gathering cozy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/algidness>