

ALIGN

Meaning: To align means to arrange or adjust in a straight line or in proper position, or to bring into agreement or harmony.

1. It's important to align your goals with your core values for lasting success.
2. The teacher asked the students to align their chairs for the group discussion.
3. We need to align our marketing strategy with the latest consumer trends.
4. The architect designed the building to align perfectly with the surrounding landscape.
5. To effectively resolve the conflict, both parties must align their interests.
6. They worked together to align their schedules for the upcoming project.
7. The new software will help us align our workflows and improve efficiency.
8. Before launching the campaign, we must align our messaging across all platforms.
9. The team held a meeting to ensure everyone was aligned on the project's objectives.
10. It is crucial to align your body correctly to avoid injury during exercise.
11. We need to align our goals with the company's vision.
12. The teacher asked the students to align their chairs in a straight line.
13. The new policy will align our practices with industry standards.
14. It's important to align your personal values with your professional life.
15. They worked together to align their strategies for the upcoming project.
16. The graphic designer had to align the text with the images for clarity.
17. To achieve success, you must align your efforts with your passion.
18. Before the meeting, let's align our thoughts on the key issues.
19. The architect ensured that the building's design would align with the landscape.
20. She used a ruler to align the photos perfectly on the wall.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/align>