

ALIKE

Meaning: Alike means having similarities or being similar in appearance, characteristics, or qualities.

1. The twins looked so alike that it was difficult to tell them apart.
2. Despite their different backgrounds, the two friends were alike in their values.
3. The brothers have similar tastes in music, and their playlists are surprisingly alike.
4. Her painting style is alike to that of her mentor, showcasing vibrant colors and bold strokes.
5. Even though their opinions differ, their motivations are surprisingly alike.
6. The two recipes are alike in many ways, but one uses cream while the other is dairy-free.
7. Their laughter sounded alike, echoing through the room like a harmonious duet.
8. The two novels are alike in theme but differ significantly in narrative style.
9. Though they come from different cultures, their traditions are alike in celebrating family.
10. The two puppies, while different breeds, are alike in their playful energy and curiosity.
11. The twins look so alike that I often mix them up.
12. Their opinions on the matter are surprisingly alike.
13. Even though they come from different backgrounds, their dreams are alike.
14. The two paintings are alike in style but differ in color.
15. She always believed that true friends think alike.
16. The brothers have alike tastes in music, making it easy to find common ground.
17. Though the characters are different, their motivations are strikingly alike.
18. The two novels are alike in theme but offer very different perspectives.
19. He noticed that their handwriting is remarkably alike.
20. Despite their differences, they approach challenges alike.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alike>