

ALINEMENT

Meaning: Alignment refers to the arrangement or positioning of elements in a straight line or in correct relative positions, particularly in relation to goals or objects.

1. The alignment of the team's goals is essential for achieving success.
2. She adjusted the alignment of the picture frame to make it look perfect on the wall.
3. The alignment of the planets created a spectacular night sky event.
4. Proper alignment of the spine can alleviate many types of back pain.
5. Their alignment on key issues made the partnership more effective.
6. The engineer checked the alignment of the machinery before starting the operation.
7. In yoga, alignment is crucial for maintaining balance and preventing injuries.
8. The alignment of the text in the document needed to be standardized.
9. Misalignment in expectations can lead to conflicts in any relationship.
10. The artist emphasized the alignment of colors to enhance the visual impact of her painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alinement>