

ALKALESCENT

Meaning: Alkalescent: having a slightly alkaline quality or tendency, typically indicated by a pH above neutral.

1. The solution turned alkalescent when a small amount of sodium bicarbonate was added.
2. As the pH of the water rose, it became clearly alkalescent, indicating the presence of dissolved minerals.
3. In chemistry class, we studied how certain substances can create an alkalescent environment.
4. The alkalescent nature of the mixture allowed for better enzyme activity in the experiment.
5. She was fascinated by the alkalescent properties of the natural spring water.
6. To achieve the desired reaction, the chemist adjusted the solution to become slightly alkalescent.
7. Many soil types exhibit an alkalescent quality that can affect plant growth.
8. The alkalescent conditions in the aquarium were ideal for the coral species we wanted to keep.
9. He noted that the alkalescent state of the solution was crucial for the synthesis process.
10. With careful measurement, we ensured that the solution remained consistently alkalescent throughout the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alkalescent>