

ALKALI

Meaning: Alkali refers to a basic, typically water-soluble substance that can neutralize acids, often consisting of hydroxides or carbonates of alkali metals.

1. An alkali is a substance that can neutralize acids.
2. Sodium hydroxide is a common alkali used in various industrial processes.
3. The presence of alkali in the soil can affect plant growth and nutrient absorption.
4. He carefully measured the alkali concentration in the solution for his experiment.
5. Potassium carbonate is often used as an alkali in the production of glass.
6. Alkali metals are highly reactive and must be handled with caution.
7. In chemistry, alkali refers to the bases that dissolve in water.
8. The teacher explained the role of alkali in maintaining pH balance in the body.
9. Alkalis can produce slippery feelings when dissolved in water due to their basic nature.
10. Understanding the properties of alkali is essential for safe laboratory practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/alkali>